

NISCORT FATHER AGNEL SCHOOL, VAISHALI (2017-18)
SELF LEARNING WORKSHEET (BIOLOGY)
CLASS-VIII, CROP PRODUCTION AND MANAGEMENT

Q1) Fill in the blanks:

1. The crops sown in _____ season are called rabi crops.
2. The wild plants which grow along with the main crops are called _____.
3. _____ and _____ are modern methods of irrigation.
4. Grains after harvesting are stored in _____ and _____.

Q2) state whether the following are 'TRUE' or 'FALSE'

1. Pulse crop is cereal crop.
2. Sandy soil can retain more water than clayey soil.
3. Crop rotation is good for replenishing nitrogen.
4. A machine called combine is used for both harvesting and threshing.

Q3) Answer the following in one word:

1. System of irrigation used on uneven land where sufficient water is not available _____
2. Irrigation system in which water falls drop by drop at the position of roots _____
3. Cattle or human labour is used in this system of irrigation _____
4. The method to supply water to crops at different intervals _____
5. Tool used to sow seeds at proper distance and depths _____

Q4) Why do farmers use manure and fertilizers in their fields?

Q5) What are silos? How are they different from granaries?

Q6) What is harvesting? How is it done?

Q7) Explain the following terms:

a) Broadcasting of seeds

b) Drill sowing

c) Animal husbandry

Q8) Why is weeding of crop fields essential?
