

NISCORT FR. AGNEL SCHOOL,VAISHALI

SELF –LEARNING WORKSHEET –VIII

THE GUEST

Q1. Answer these questions with reference to the context.:-

1.”.....That is all that we have to modify the monotony of our existence. Rather dreadful, isn't it?”

- a) Who is saying this and to whom?
- b) Why does the speaker find existence monotonous, and what provides him with a little respite
- c) Did the listener agree with the speaker? If not, Why?

Q2. The Bishop said, “Some animals resent being watched while they are eating.” Do you think he came to the drawing room because he did not want to upset the Leopard? Could there be another reason?

Q3. Do you have guests at your home only on weekends and holidays?

Q4. Describe an interesting or funny guest who visits your house?

NISCORT FR. AGNEL SCHOOL,VAISHALI

SELF –LEARNING WORKSHEET –VIII

Notice writing

Q1.Your school is holding a summer camp for training students in hockey and volleyball. Write a notice for the school notice board .You are the sports secretary of the school.

Q2.You are Himmat of Queen Victoria school, Kolkata. You are the secretary of the school Literary Association. Write a notice for your school notice board giving details of an exhibition to be held on “Books for the young”.

Q3.You are the Sunil Bohra,a president of Environment Club, Shimla.Write a notice that you would like to put up in all the local schools for volunteers to help you to organize a rally against the plastic bags. Give the necessary information.

Q4.Floods has devastated the low-lying areas of a district in Bihar. As the social welfare officer in Patna, write a notice for the schools and colleges in your city, appealing for aid for the victims of the flood.

Q5.You are Narain/Namrata, the Culture secretary of your school. Write a notice for your school notice board giving details for participation of students in a cultural programme to be organized by your school.

Q6. Define notice and its importance in school and colleges.

NISCORT FR. AGNEL SCHOOL, VAISHALI

Poem-ring out wild bells to the wild sky

Q1. Read the extract and answer the following questions:-

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
That flying cloud, the frosty light
The year is dying in the night;
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.

- (a).what does poet mean to say by ring out?
- (b).what does the flying cloud, the frosty night symbolizes
- (c).what does it mean "the year is dying".
- (d).Give the rhyme scheme of the stanza.

Q2. Read the extract and answer the following questions

- (a).name the poem and the poet.
- (b).what does poet mean to say "For those that here we see no more"
- (c).What does poet mean to say "Ring out the feud of rich and poor?"

Q3. Do you make New Year resolutions? What are some of your resolutions for this year? Have you kept them all?

Q4. What are the changes the poet wants in the new year.(poem- Ring out, Wild bells to the wild sky)

Q5. Write the summary of the poem- Ring out, Wild bells to the wild sky.

Q6. Use these words and phrases in sentences of your own.

- Undertake
- Draw up
- Absorbed
- Frail
- Resolved

Q7.In the poem, the poet says "ring in redress to all mankind".How do you think this can be done,in today's world.

NISCORT FR. AGNEL SCHOOL, VAISHALI

Self learning worksheet

To sir, with love

Q1. Answer these questions with reference to the context:-

On Thursday morning, the class seemed to be in the grip of some excitement and expectancy.

- a) What was the cause of excitement?
- b) What happened as a consequence of the excitement?
- c) What effect did it have on the narrator?

Q2. That incident marked a turning point in my relationship with the class.

- a) What incident is being referred to?
- b) Who is being referred to as 'my' and what was the result of the incident on the person?

Q3. What do you think about how the teacher handled his students with them? Was he right to go along with their demands? Write a paragraph on the subject, giving reasons for your answer.

Q4. Have you ever been in a situation where you disliked someone, and then grew to like them? How did it happen?

Q5. If you were a teacher, how would you deal with a student who always disturbs the class?

Q6. Write an article on "the importance of a teacher in a student's life."

Q7. Compose a poem on "teacher"