

Niscort Fr Agnel School
Self Learning Worksheet
Science, Class- VIII
Reproduction in Animals

Q1) Fill in the blanks:

1. Sperms are produced in _____.
2. The _____ is also called womb.
3. The process by which male and female gametes fused together is called _____.
4. The organisms which directly give birth to young one's are called _____.
5. IVF stands for _____.
6. Organisms reproduce by two ways _____ and _____.
7. Tadpole is the developing stage of the _____.
8. The cell formed after fertilization is called _____.
9. Frogs undergo _____ to become adults from tadpoles.
10. _____ is essential for the continuation of species.
11. _____ reproduction is characterised by the fusion of two cells called gametes.

Q2) Define the following:

1. Zygote

2. Metamorphosis

3. Foetus

Q3) Differentiate between the following:

1. External and internal fertilization

2. Oviparous and viviparous animals

Q4) What is IVF? What are the babies born through this technique called?

Q5) What is menstruation?

Q6) What is incubation?

Q7) Why can't women with blocked fallopian tube have baby normally?

Q8) What is puberty? What is it caused by? What changes occur in boys and girl during puberty?

Q9) Draw a labelled diagram of female reproductive system.